

This is regarding ownership of radio stations. It is very hard for minorities to purchase radio stations not only because they are in the hands of large conglomerates, but the prices are far above what we can afford. It is virtually impossible to get financing in the millions of dollars for a radio station from any bank without having millions of dollars in that bank. We have been priced out of the market!! De-regulation only increased the prices and priced minorities out of the market.